Read the following passage and answer the questions given below.

Let me have the life I love and nothing more. Let everything go, I desire only two things the fine sky above my bed among the trees and bushes and watch the stars as lie under the open sky. I do not ask for rich food to eat, I shall feed content with simple rice. This is the kind of life that I wish to live and lead forever. Let the future have anything in store for me, and let the final blow of fate in the form of death fall on me at any time. As long as I live, I only wish to travel all over the earth with greenery all around and never ending path before me. I am not after money or hope or love or friendship. All I ask is the sky above me and road under my feet.
