Ref. : Letter No. Supdt/SBC/2015/5056 dated 26th August, 2015 received from Mr. Rajesh Pandey, Chairman, State Bar Council of Madhya Pradesh requesting the Council to implement Moot Court practice, uniform dress code in all the law colleges.

Sir,

The Legal Education Committee of the Bar Council of India at its meeting held on 18th October, 2015 considered the matter regarding uniform dress code in all the law colleges. After consideration, the Legal Education Committee took a decision in this regard, the relevant portion of the decision is given below :-

"It has been repeatedly communicated by various orders to all the law colleges through circular that each college must communicate to the Bar Council of India how many times the schools have participating in moot court during each semester. This should be complied with.

So far, uniform dress code in all the law colleges/universities are concerned, it has come to the notice of the Council that all institutes teaching law, it has been found that the standard of dresses by the students of law all over the country is gradually detracting and which does not give impression of proper dress code discipline specially for the professional education. Accordingly, the Committee recommends that the matter is left to each university/college to decide in respect of dress code what is feasible befitting the profession in this regard. It would be preferable, if the college follow dress code white shirt with trouser (white/black/grey)."

The above recommendations were approved by the Bar Council of India at its meeting held on 18th October, 2015.

This is for your information and necessary action.

Yours Sincerely,

(Ashok Kumar Pandey)
