Mechanism to Ensure Proper Implementation of Programme Project Report (PPR)

In accordance with the UGC's Regulations (ODL Programmes and Online Programmes), 2020, the following key mechanisms are used to ensure the proper implementation of the Programme Project Report (PPR):

1. Curriculum and CBCS Alignment

The programme is structured under the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS). Each course is mapped to Course Outcomes (COs) and Programme Outcomes (POs) to ensure balanced learning. The syllabus is periodically reviewed to maintain industry relevance and to strengthen managerial competencies.

2. Teaching-Learning Mechanism

Self-Learning Material (SLM): Printed and/or e-study material is provided in a self-instructional style.

Study Centres & Contact Sessions: Weekend/holiday contact sessions are arranged for academic counseling, guidance, and clarification of doubts.

Blended Support: Students receive academic guidance through study centres, university communications, and, where possible, digital resources.

3. Assessment and Evaluation

Internal Assessment (20 marks): Through assignments, term work, and short written tasks.

University Examination (80 marks): Conducted at semester end with a structured question paper (case studies, descriptive answers, and short notes).

Project Work (Semester IV): Mandatory 60 days of practical training in a manufacturing/service organization, followed by submission of a certified project report and viva-voce.

Estd. 1962

"A++" Accredited by NAAC(2021)
With CGPA 3.52

4. Quality Assurance

Continuous monitoring is carried out by the Centre for Distance and Online Education (CDOE) through regular feedback from learners and faculty to ensure effective delivery of the programme. In addition, the Board of Studies (BoS) and the Academic Council periodically review the curriculum, pedagogy, and evaluation methods to maintain academic standards and relevance. Further, strict adherence is ensured to the guidelines and norms prescribed by the UGC, AICTE, and Shivaji University for distance education programmes, thereby upholding quality and regulatory compliance.

5. Student Support Services

The institution ensures timely communication with learners through study centres, official notices, emails, and dedicated helplines, facilitating smooth dissemination of information. It also provides a structured mechanism for the redressal of student grievances concerning admissions, study materials, assignments, and examinations, ensuring that learners' concerns are addressed promptly and effectively. Additionally, guidance is extended for project work, industry training, and career-related support, enabling students to gain practical exposure and professional development alongside their academic learning.

This mechanism ensures that the MBA Distance Mode programme is implemented in accordance with the PPR, maintaining quality, accessibility, and credibility while meeting the learning needs of diverse students.

Suggested Answer in English:

"I would suggest adding more practical examples and short quizzes at the end of each section. This will help in understanding the concepts even better. Also, providing a quick summary would make revision easier."

Session of account and statistics should be in recorded and ppt form

Timming never to be heat to others/ working people's Lunch breaks schedule.

If possible, please extend the doubt-clearing segment so students can ask more questions. A weekly schedule or timetable shared in advance would help students manage time better.
