Imp. Instructions: The students are required to attempt the examinations in an online mode. The platform will be Google Forms. The link will be shared by the Exam Centre 5 minutes before the examination on the WhatsApp Group of PGDHR 2019-20 batch. Only those students who have applied for the examinations and who have also appeared for the practical examinations are eligible to appear for this examination. The students are requested to click on the link within 5 minutes and start their examinations. The google forms will automatically get locked once the time schedule is over. Therefore, it is very essential for the students to submit their test in time. Please see that there is only one attempt to these examinations. Once you press 'Submit' button, your responses will be recorded permanently and no one will be allowed to reopen the exam link once again. Therefore, it is advised to click the submit button only after making sure that your all answers are clicked and they are correct as per your knowledge. Till you press the submit button, you are having enough time to make necessary changes.
