Two day National Conferences on

“Fostering Entrepreneurship and Social Inclusion”
27th and 28th Feb 2025

About conference

Entrepreneurship is not merely about creating successful businesses; it's about fostering innovation, driving economic growth, and promoting social inclusion. Recognizing the pivotal role of entrepreneurship in addressing societal challenges and promoting inclusive development, we propose a two-day National Conference on Entrepreneurship Development and Social Inclusion. This conference aims to bring together policymakers, entrepreneurs, academics, and social activists to exchange ideas, share best practices, and explore innovative strategies for fostering entrepreneurship and social inclusion in our society.

Objectives of the conference:

1. To discuss the role of entrepreneurship in promoting economic growth and development, Government support to entrepreneurship.
2. To explore strategies for fostering an entrepreneurial culture and mindset among diverse communities.
3. To examine the barriers to entrepreneurship faced by marginalized groups and explore ways to promote their inclusion.
4. To facilitate networking and collaboration among stakeholders from various sectors to promote entrepreneurship and social inclusion.

Conference Themes:

1. Entrepreneurship Ecosystem: Building a supportive environment for entrepreneurship.
2. Social Entrepreneurship: Leveraging business for social impact and inclusion.
3. Inclusive Innovation: Promoting innovation for the benefit of all communities.
4. Access to Resources: Bridging the gap in access to finance, mentorship, and other resources for marginalized entrepreneurs.
5. Education and Skill Development: Empowering individuals with the skills and knowledge needed for entrepreneurship.
6. Entrepreneurship and various business modules.
7. Nano-entrepreneurship for inclusive growth
8. Case Studies and Best Practices: Displaying successful entrepreneurship initiatives promoting social inclusion.
