Kolhapur: The Shivaji University, Kolhapur (SUK) has declared details of the upcoming entrance examination for over 20 courses. Almost all of the examinations this year will be conducted via online mode May 28 onwards. The last date to apply for the courses with regular fee is May 4.

The circular from the SUK stated that the online applications have already started from April 17 across the division. The last date for students to apply for the respective courses with late fee is May 7 and with super-late fee it is May 11.

The entrance test's regular fee for MA/MSc Geography, MSc (all subjects), MA Faculty change, MA English, Hindi, Marathi, History, Sociology, and Political science is Rs 300, while the late and super-late fee is Rs 800 and Rs 1,300 respectively.

The entrance test for the MSc Geography, MA Mass Communication, MSc Alcohol Technology, Bachelor of Journalism, Master of Journalism, MSc Agro chemical and pest management, MSc Sugar technology, MSc Electronics, BLib, and MLib, courses will be conducted on May 28.

Examination centres in Sangli, Satara and Kolhapur districts have been declared for the entrance. Many of these colleges are engineering colleges, since the availability of the infrastructure for conducting online examination is easily available there.

The offline examination will be conducted in a single centre — the Humanities building at the SUK campus.

The online entrance examinations for Yashwantrao Chavan School of Rural Studies will be conducted on June 6, which include courses like MSW, MRS, MBA.

According to the varsity officials, the exam schedule for BSc and MSc Nano Science will be declared later in a separate notification. The entrance examination for other major courses, like MCA, Chemistry, Computer Science, Microbiology, and Mathematics, Botany, Electronics, Physics, MJC and Geology will be conducted between May 29 to June 7.

According to the SUK officials, the merit list for all the entrance examinations will be declared on June 17, while the admission rounds will begin from June 26. The overall admission rounds will end by July 5.

The university, with 40 different departmental courses, conducts entrance examination for over 25 post-graduate courses every year. Rest of the courses fall under social sciences, languages and political sciences and do not require any entrance exam. There are many such courses which students can opt for at the post-graduate degree and diploma level, said a varsity official.
