Certificate Course in Constitutional Policy of Reservation

1. PREAMBLE

In the context of fostering a more inclusive and equitable society, it is imperative to understand the constitutional underpinnings and policy implications of reservation in India. Reservation, as enshrined in the Indian Constitution, seeks to redress historical injustices and provide equitable opportunities to marginalized communities. This Certificate Course in Constitutional Policy of Reservation aims to offer a comprehensive understanding of the legal, social, and political dimensions of reservation policies. By delving into the historical context, judicial interpretations, and contemporary debates, this course will equip participants with the knowledge and analytical skills necessary to engage critically with reservation policies and their impacts on society.

Objectives

1. To provide an in-depth understanding of the historical background leading to the formulation of reservation policies in India.
2. To analyze the constitutional provisions related to reservation, including Articles 15, 16, 46, and other relevant sections of the Indian Constitution.
3. To evaluate the effectiveness of reservation policies in achieving social justice and equality.
4. To critically assess the policy design, implementation mechanisms, and outcomes of reservation policies at various levels of government and educational institutions.
5. To explore the social, economic, and political implications of reservation policies on different communities.
6. To understand the role of reservation in addressing discrimination and promoting diversity in public and private sectors.
7. To equip participants with practical skills to analyze, advocate for, and implement reservation policies.

2. PROGRAMME OUTCOMES (POS)

Upon successful completion of the Certificate Course in Constitutional Policy of Reservation, participants will be able to:

1. Demonstrate a thorough understanding of the historical events and social movements that led to the development of reservation policies in India.
2. Articulate the evolution and milestones in the history of reservation from the pre-independence era to the present.
3. Interpret and analyze the key constitutional provisions related to reservation, including Articles 15, 16, 46, and others.
4. Explain the significance of landmark Supreme Court judgments and their influence on the interpretation and implementation of reservation policies.
5. Analyze the social, economic, and political impacts of reservation policies on diverse communities.
6. Develop practical skills to analyze, advocate for, and implement reservation policies effectively.

3. DURATION: Certificate Course in Constitutional Policy of Reservation shall be A Full time course for 6 months (Total Credits = 04)

4. ELIGIBILITY FOR ADMISSION: 10th Passed or equivalent.

5. MEDIUM OF INSTRUCTION:

The medium of instruction shall be ENGLISH/MARATHI. The students will have an option to write answers-scripts in English and Marathi.

6. EXAM PATTERN :

The pattern of examination will be academic year-end or Annual Examination with Internal Assessment/Evaluation.

9. CONVERSION TABLE: SGPA & CGPA

Shivaji University has adopted 10-point Grading System as follows:

- In each Annual exam, marks obtained in each course (paper) are converted to grade points:
  - If the total marks, of course, are 100 and passing criteria are 40%, then use the following Table 1 for the conversion.
  - If total marks of any of the courses are different than 100 (e.g., 50) and passing criterion is 40%, then marks obtained are converted to marks out of 100 as below, and then grade points are computed using marks out of 100 as per Table 1.

Table 1: Conversion of Marks out of 100 to grade point

| Sr.No | Marks Range out of 100 | Grade point | Letter grade     |
|-------|------------------------|-------------|------------------|
